

Quentin Rousseau

Passionate developer specializing in iOS, android, ruby on rails and more at venture backed OneFeat, ready for new challenges

Professional Profile

Passionate about software & web development, web technologies and social networks, I want to expand my skills in these areas.

I like to travel to discover other cultures, using my camera to photograph moments in life, playing and listening to music. I am friendly, creative, a team player and a self-learner.

Always ready for challenges.
